

1. Match each computer system component to the most relevant role/definition.
Computer Hardware - CPU, Memory, I/O
Applications - Solves users's computational problems
Operating Systems - Optimizes the use of a computer system
Users - People or the machines using a computer system
2. _____ is an intruder as a component of hardware.
Device Drivers
3. On a computer system, the _____ is/are an intermediary component serving directly the _____ while receiving service directly from the _____.
Operating system, applications, computer hardware
4. Interrupts are a mechanism provided by the _____ to help _____ carry its mission efficiently.
computer hardware, operating system
5. The operating system is a _____ that makes the use of a computer system _____, _____, and _____.
a software program, convenient, efficient, secure